

MASQUERADE.

1404

Such Ladies, as wish to promenade (—with comfort—dignity—ease,—and grace—) at the MASQUERADE; which will be at RANELAGH This Evening, are respectfully informed, that wearing of MARTIN VAN BUTCHELL'S new-invented SPRING-BAND GARTERS, (by the KING'S Patent) will help to make them (as they ought to be!)—superlatively happy!

Each—should send the Size—

(—QUERY—to prevent—)

Just above her Knees!

The Marchioness of SALISBURY,—the Countess of AYLESBURY,—and divers other Ladies, having had these Garters many months, —now can tell their friends,

—How much they like them.—

(—JOHN HUNTER, Esq. F. R. S. Surgeon—

Extraordinary—to His MAJESTY—

Has Six Years us'd—and—recommended them!—)

Made and sold by the Patentee (himself,) at his (private) house, Mount-street, Grosvenor-square;—but no where else.

(—Beware of Counterfeits:—All vastly good things— are imitated:—witness, our current Coin.—)

TREASONS—paramount!

Bad men do commit!—and are not abash'd

At EXECUTIONS!

The genuine Garters have on them wrote, as follows:

(—With the AUTHOR'S pen.—)

By the KING'S Patent, MARTIN VAN BUTCHELL, the true and first Inventor, No. 56, Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, London.

(—Not very far from—EXETER-EXCHANGE—)

Some—illegal Makers, Users, Exercisers, and Venders of Patent Spring Bands—have been cut off—(sorrowing)—in their sins!

Let many others—(—warning take—in time!—)

—“Cease to do evil!—and learn to do well!”—

(—COMBINATIONS—may—

Be weak—as COWARDS!—)

—“MONARCHS—frowning—are—

Like LIONS—roaring!”—
